

CURTISS P-40 WARHAWK

ASKING: $1.600

This magnificent plane has a great documented history in the China – Burma - India and Aleutian theaters. Additionally, the daughter of the pilot that perished in Aleutians has been in contact with the restoration team headed by Chris Kirchner. She has written a book that is about to be released. The book focuses deservedly on the role of the Warhawk in the Aleutians during WWII, and this plane and its remarkable restoration will be included – further enhancing the significance and value of this remarkable piece of history.
